

1,000 POLICE ATTEND A. F. M'GINLEY RITES

A full inspector's funeral was held yesterday for Detective Anthony F. McGinley, who died in Sydenham Hospital on Wednesday after he was wounded in a Harlem gunfight last week as he tried to make an arrest.

A procession of 1,000 Police Department members, headed by Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine and Chief Inspector John J. O'Connell, escorted the coffin from the detective's residence, 1057 Nelson Avenue, the Bronx, to Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church, Shakespeare Avenue and 168th Street.

Mayor La Guardia joined Commissioner Valentine and Chief Inspector O'Connell as the procession entered the church.

The solemn high requiem mass was celebrated by Mgr. William C. Humphrey, pastor; the Rev. Francis A. Slayne was deacon and the Rev. John J. O'Donohue subdeacon. Mgr. Joseph A. McCaffrey, Police Department chaplain, delivered a eulogy. The Police Department Band and Glee Club took part in the service.

Burial was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Valhalla, N. Y.
